Pentecost

SUNDAY

MAY 20, 2018

There appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit.

FATHER ANTHONY'S FAITH FORMATION CORNER

The Meaning of Pentecost in Light of the Paschal Mystery

All our liturgical celebrations revolve around the paschal mystery, which is the central mystery of our Christian faith. In a word, it is about the death and resurrection of Jesus. In his book The Holy Longing, Canadian spiritual author Ronald Rolheiser discusses at great length the feasts of the Ascension and Pentecost in the context of the paschal mystery. On this Solemnity of Pentecost, I would like to borrow some ideas from Fr. Rolheiser for our reflection… In a few distinct moments within the paschal cycle, one can find Good Friday, Easter Sunday, the 40-day period leading to Ascension, Ascension, and finally Pentecost. This concrete story from Fr. Rolheiser can very well illustrate the pattern of the paschal mystery.

The story is about a woman at age forty-nine. From the outside, everybody would think she is a happy soul: she is attractive and intelligent, has a good family and career, etc. But those who really know her realize that she is deeply wounded. And her presence around others at times causes a great deal of unease… It happened that at age nine, she was sexually abused by her alcoholic father. Her life seemed to have ended by then. But no, life went on. She went on to have a good career as an artist and got married with a good family. However, she was not able to let go of what happened. As she got older, the anger inside her became much more "cancerous."

When we examine this story, we can see that this woman has experienced Good Friday at age nine: the loss of her wholeness. Like the body of Jesus, it was crucified to the cross and was lost for good. But not all was lost. There was still a lot of life in her: her career, family, artistic talent, physical health, etc. We can see that in a sense, all that was her Easter Sunday. What she needed was to undergo the Ascension—to grieve what has died and to let it go eventually… Through the help of another woman who has also been abused, she underwent grief therapy. In one of the healing sessions that included professionals from different groups—a priest, doctor, psychiatrist, and a nurse—someone told her: "Jesus only gave his disciples forty days to grieve and to adjust, but he has given you forty years already. It is time to let go." That really hit her. And she was able to find peace and happiness again when she eventually let that pain (the death of her wholeness) "ascend" like the body of Jesus. Finally she devoted her free time to help others who have been abused. That was her Pentecost!

We are constantly undergoing changes in life. We die a thousand deaths: death of our youth and good looks, death of our wholeness, death of a relationship, death of a dream, death of a certain conception, etc. Like Mary Magdalene and like the two disciples on the road to Emmaus who did not recognize the risen Lord though he had died only a few days ago (because they were still clinging on to his former self/reality so much so that they were not able to recognize his new/exalted reality), we tend to "cling" on to what was lost—whether it be a dream or whatever—and find it difficult to accept the current reality. What we need to do is to let go; to let the old thing ascend, just like to the body of Jesus. It may not be an easy task: the woman in the story above needed a good forty years to let go of her childhood pain and finally achieve her Ascension and Pentecost! Whatever it is, we can only experience new life if we are willing to die and die again.

Lord Jesus Christ, Redeemer of the world, you have shouldered the burden of our weakness and borne our sufferings in your own passion and death. Hear this prayer for our sick brothers and sister whom you have redeemed. Strengthen their hope of salvation and sustain them in body and soul, for you live and reign for ever and ever. Amen.

God, our shelter and our strength, you listen in love to the cry of your people: hear the prayers we offer for our departed brothers and sisters. Cleanse them of their sins and grant them the fullness of redemption. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHÚA NHẬT CHÚA THÁNH THẦN HIỆN XUỐNG (Ga 20,19-23)

ĐƯỢC SAI ĐI ĐỂ LOAN TIN MỪNG

"Bình an cho anh em. Như Chúa Cha đã sai Thầy, thì Thầy cũng sai anh em." (Ga 19,21)

Suy niệm: Tiến sĩ Chainarong, chủ tịch đại học St. John tại Bangkok, Thái Lan, chia sẻ kinh nghiệm 40 năm trong công việc truyền thông, nêu lên nguyên tắc cơ bản để thông tin trở nên hấp dẫn và thuyết phục như sau: "Tin tức có thể tốt, có thể xấu, nhưng luôn luôn phải là sự thật." Có thể nói các môn đệ của Chúa Kitô cũng được sai đi để thông truyền một tin tức, một sự thật: Đức Ki-tô, đã chịu đóng đinh và đã chết, nhưng nay Ngài đã sống lại. Điểm khác biệt là khi được sai đi như vậy, các môn đệ cũng đồng thời lãnh nhận Thánh Thần, là Thần Chân Lý. Như thế, để tin tức Chúa chịu chết và sống lại có sức hấp dẫn và thuyết phục thì người loan báo phải được Chúa Thánh Thần tác động; tin tức ấy không phải là một kiến thức đơn thuần mà phải là một niềm xác tín có sức hoán cải cuộc sống ở đời này mà và hơn nữa đem lại sự sống vĩnh cửu đời sau; chính vì thế, thông tin Chúa Kitô đã phục sinh là một thứ "tin tức" mà người loan truyền dám hy sinh cả mạng sống để bảo vệ, bởi vì đó là chính Tin Mừng.

Mời Bạn: Bạn đón nhận "tin tức" Chúa Ki-tô phục sinh với tâm trạng nào: như một thông tin hững hờ không liên quan gì đến đời sống của bạn hay như một biến cố quan trọng thiết yếu đến sự sống còn của mình và những người liên hệ? Là người được sai đi, bạn có dám xả thân vì Tin Mừng mình loan báo không?

Chia sẻ: Đề nghị một việc, một phương thức loan báo Tin Mừng thích hợp cho nhóm/cộng đoàn của bạn.

Sống Lời Chúa: Làm một việc tốt với ý hướng loan báo Tin Mừng.

Cầu nguyện: Lạy Chúa, xin cho con luôn sẵn sàng để Chúa sai con đi.

Attention:

- In order to keep the Church clean and also to respect GOD, please do not bring any food and drink inside the Church.
- If you would like a visit from a priest or one of our ministers to the sick, please let us know by contacting the sick call line 657--345-9245. Thank you.

TODOS SON ENVIADOS

Cincuenta días después del Domingo de Pascua, celebramos el cumplimiento de todas las promesas de Dios en el Domingo de Pentecostés, una celebración a la que muchas veces se ha llamado el cumpleaños de la Iglesia. Se nos recuerda otra vez más que los cristianos hemos recibido el Espíritu Santo, no para beneficio personal sino para permitirnos seguir nuestra vocación cristiana.
El eje de las lecturas para Pentecostés es el relato en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, cuando el Espíritu Santo es enviado a los discípulos. Las demás lecturas para este domingo nos ayudan a comprender qué significa vivir nuestra vocación cristiana. La carta del apóstol san Pablo nos muestra los dones y frutos que el Espíritu Santo nos concede. El Evangelio según san Juan nos recuerda que Jesús ha enviado a todos sus discípulos para que compartan su perdón y paz, por el poder del Espíritu Santo.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Algunos expertos han comentantado que los latinos y las latinas somos muy atraídos por movimientos carismáticos o pentecostales. Esto puede ser debido a los misioneros franciscanos que fundaron la Iglesia en América durante el siglo XVI. Probablemente sin conocer su origen estos llegaron con ideas milenaristas de un abad cisterciense llamado Joaquín de Fiore. Este monje había profetizado que estaba por llegar una época del Espíritu Santo en la cual se viviría por fin una utopía o sea el Reino de Dios. Muchos de los primeros franciscanos adoptaron sus ideas pero lamentablemente el joaquinismo, poco a poco, se transformó en herejía por su extremada crítica a los Sacramentos y la jerarquía.
Al pasar de casi 3 siglos los frailes franciscanos que llegaron a nuestro continente vinieron con la idea de inaugurar la Iglesia del Espíritu Santo, la cual reformaría los errores y las debilidades de la vieja Iglesia Europea. Esta Iglesia también sería la que defendería al nativo y el mestizo de los abusos del Conquistador. Este sueño de utopía, se quedó en sueño pero, es un sueño que continua en el pueblo latino y su devoción al Espíritu Santo de la Santísima Trinidad.
