GOSPEL MEDITATION

I used to be a bad neighbor. I'd get wrapped up in my life and ignore those around me. Then I found sage advice from Benjamin Franklin to this effect: to be a better neighbor, ask someone to do a favor for you. It's counterintuitive, isn't it? Tell strangers that I need their help? Yuck. I'll risk looking needy. Worse, I'll be indebted to them. But I tried it, and it works like a charm. Recently I asked my neighbor Alan for a hacksaw, and Inga for an egg. They kindly obliged, and our friendship is growing.

This week we hear a scribe of the law cynically ask Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). Like him, we prefer to keep the list of our "neighbors" as short as possible. It requires less interruption and inconvenience. But when Jesus tells the parable of the Good Samaritan, he exposes the lonely, cold-heartedness tendency of the scribe's (and our) heart. My "neighbor" is anyone I encounter who manifests a concrete need. There isn't time to require any other credential because human need opens us to the happy reciprocity which is love.

Jesus' words challenge us this week to ask a neighbor for help in some small way. How marvelous that God himself shows us how. He moves into our world and asks us to love Him with small deeds of love. Maybe that's where Ben Franklin got the idea.

"Vete y haz tú lo mismo" (Lucas 10:37). Esta parábola es muy rica en enseñanza. Si revisamos nuestra propia vida, descubriremos que en diferentes circunstancias actuamos como los personajes representados en ella. ¿Cuántas veces hemos sido como el que pasó de largo y se hizo el que no vio lo que pasaba? Y lo hacemos con frecuencia en la propia familia: vemos el sufrimiento y pensamos: "Solo les pasa a ellos por no poner cuidado o por tontos." Hoy pongamos atención en el posadero que, al pedido del buen samaritano, cumplió con su trabajo al pie de la letra. En lenguaje actual se llama responsabilidad y cuidado. Pidamos al Señor que nos dé la apertura e iniciativa del samaritano, pero también la responsabilidad del posadero, para que sanara el hombre que fue asaltado.

¿Cuántas veces nosotros damos rodeos para ayudar a alguien en necesidad? ¿Qué podemos aprender hoy de esta enseñanza de Jesús? El hombre no tiene nombre, precisamente, porque nos representa a cualquiera de nosotros que necesita cuidado. Hombre o mujer de cualquier raza o nación está implícito en esta parábola. ¡Es la historia de la humanidad a través de los años! Sin embargo, existe otro pequeño detalle para dar ayuda al que está en apuros: acercarte y escuchar su historia para poder curar sus heridas. A veces nos toca pagar a alguien para que haga el trabajo; otras veces, hacerlo nosotros. Y es ahí donde está el secreto: hacerlo juntos en Cristo. Lpi

The Evangelion Youth Ministry

The Evangelion Youth Ministry

With great joy and gratitude, we're excited to share the wonderful news from last Saturday, June 28, 2025! The Evangelion Youth Ministry at our beloved St. Barbara Parish hosted a vibrant and faith-filled event titled

"Called to Holiness: Virtues of a Catholic Girl Today."

This uplifting gathering focused on inspiring topics such as:

- What it means to be a daughter of God
- The beauty and strength of a Catholic woman
- The lives of Mary and the women saints
- Pursuing holy friendships and Christ-centered relationships

We were blessed to welcome around 58 amazing young ladies, ages 17 to 20, who came together with open hearts and deep faith. Many of them shared powerful testimonies about Catholic women who inspire them. Others offered their musical talents to glorify God, while some bravely spoke about their spiritual journeys, each adding a unique voice to the conversation.

One of the most encouraging moments came when these young women expressed how much they loved the experience—and asked for more events like this in the future. Deacon Hao joyfully assured them that, with the support of our Pastor, Father Tuan, and the priests and staff of St. Barbara, their wish will come true! We are already planning to host another gathering later this summer.

We closed the event with a beautiful time of adoration, giving thanks to our Lord for His abundant blessings and for the spiritual growth taking place in our youth. A special shout-out and heartfelt kudos to Thomas, Pascal, Tu, Carolyn, and their friends, who did an outstanding job organizing, preparing, and leading the event. Their dedication and teamwork made it all possible.

Thank you, Father Tuan, for your continued support and for giving our youth the space to grow in holiness. We can't wait to bring even more joyful and inspiring events to our parish community!

With gratitude and excitement, On behalf of the Evangelion Youth Ministry (Deacon Phuc Nguyen)
